"It is necessary, while in darkness,
to know that there is a light somewhere,
to know that in oneself, waiting to be found, there is a light."

junior year abroad

Haut-Koenigsbourg, built in the feudal period (10th-13th centuries) and restored in the late 19th century.

"The value for me lies not only in what I can learn scholastically, or see here in Germany or Europe in general, but in what I personally experience inwardly being transplanted on the other side of the Atlantic away from family and friends and normal everyday American life. It is an adventure in so many aspects. Just four weeks ago I would have never guessed that I would be where I sit right now. I am spending my three week Christmas holiday in a Wassuschloss (water castle) with a family whose ancestors have lived here for over 350 years. There are five children, and so it is a very lively household. I am probably learning German more intensively that I have since I arrived. In any case, it has been a beautiful Christmas, one I'll never forget."

Donna Bartleson, the Seine River in Paris.

August 24, 1970, I embarked on the longest journey I have ever taken, and I have not yet ended that journey. Each day I am traveling towards new insights and experiences. Already, half-way through the year I have stored up more new experiences than I ever have for a whole year in the States. I don't regret any of them.

Our first week here was orientation to the city + the European way of life (to which we are still adjusting). The next six weeks were an orientation to the University + its systems (which I have yet to see) The universities here are not nearly as organized as in the States.

Before the start of the University, BCA sponsored a trip to Paris for us. Paris was as exciting and alive as I had always imagined, and even more exciting since I was a part of it. Since traveling to Paris, I have also traveled down to the French Riviera across to Innsbruck Austria (where I spent a beautiful New Years Eve), and through parts of Germany. Before I go back, I hope to see Italy, Spain Switzerland, England and more if I have the time.

Even though this year ~~is~~ has been very profitable to me, I am anxious to get back to the States to see my family and friends and to eat such fine American delicacies as hamburgers + sandwiches. I am also looking forward to seeing all my friends again on the E-town campus in September.

To the graduating seniors I will miss seeing many of you next year. Good bye + good luck in the future.

Have a nice summer,

Donna Bartleson

CHRISTMAS
LOVE IT OR LEAVE IT!

An open letter
to the graduating seniors

Friends:

You, who are about to graduate, do not always see things as we the older alumni do. We, who were graduated ten, twenty and thirty years ago are still learning, and one of the things we learned is that times and circumstances and ideas change. We do not think as we did when we were graduated and we are confident that you, too, will think differently in years to come.

This is a plea for "the college." If you are leaving with any dissatisfactions or disappointments, do not write Elizabethtown off on that account. Keep an open mind and nourish the spark of affection and regard that you still have for the school.

We hope you will join the Alumni Association now. If not now, leave the way open to join later. The idea might be out of fashion but you will be surprised to find that it can enrich your life.

Best regards,
Ray Cobaugh '35, president
